

ICES 2015

The International Conference
on Emotion and Sensibility 2015

“Leading Innovation in Affective Science and Engineering”

November 18(Wed) – 21(Sat), 2015
Phoenix Resort, Jeju, Republic of Korea

Abstract submission are now open

In order to make a presentation at ICES 2015, you must have submitted an abstract.

The ICES 2015 Committee launches a call for oral and/or poster communications (presentations will be given in English). Everyone is invited to submit an abstract. Submitted abstracts will be reviewed and selected by the Conference's Academic Committee for oral or poster presentation. Outstanding oral presentations are reserved for best young investigators' awards.

Abstract submission will be closed the 31th of August and the Committee's response will be delivered in the end of October.

To submit an abstract, Please visit on our official web site (<http://ices2015.org/>)

Poster Display

Standard size is 0.9 meter by 1.2 meter. Oversized posters cannot be accommodated.

If at all possible, bring your poster with you rather than shipping it to the venue to avoid shipping delays and handling fees that some properties charge. If you do ship to the venue, please address your poster to yourself as a guest.
