

Greetings from the IEA Officers!

We have updates and information items to convey to you –

- Please check the home page of the IEA website (iea.cc) for a new message from the Executive Committee. Andrew Todd, Chair of IDC, provides a thought-provoking picture of the status of IEA and HF/E science across the globe.

- The IEA Council voted in 2015 to raise the minimum IEA dues payment to $100. This takes effect in 2016, so please remember this when you calculate your 2016 dues payment.

- Please see Headline News for information on IEA Endorsed Conferences:
 - 2016 Human Factors and Ergonomics Malaysia (HFEM) Conference and Ergo Competition. 26-27 September, Kuala Lumpur
 - HEPS 2016 conference: Healthcare and society: New challenges, new opportunities, 5-7 October, 2016, Toulouse, France.
 - 4th SEANES Ergonomics Conference, 28 November- 1 December, 2016, Bandung, Indonesia.

- HFES (USA) is offering a 15% discount on the individual price of HFES journals for members of IEA Federated Societies. These journals are shown on the attached flyer. Order them from journals@sagepub.com and use the code on the flyer. Because the flyer contains a special discount code, please distribute it to your Federated Society members only.

- We would like to publicize your events for Global Ergonomics Month. It is a great way to advertise your events and to promote HF/E science and practice. Please send us information about your events and we will post it on the website. Send information to Kathleen Mosier, vpseg@iea.cc Michelle Robertson, CPR@iea.cc
